PETCO PARK TRAINING
 (Health Card/Register Training)

This season the Petco Park Concessionaire will handle training a little differently than last season. Below are the new policies and benefits of required training at Petco Park.

Benefits

- Training is good for the entire season. Worker earns a health card for completion.
- Completed Petco Park Training earns you 1 Esperanza Concession Credit towards your 2006 requirement of 10 Concession Credits when you complete your first event (in addition to event credit).
- Multiple Training Dates to choose that fit your schedule: (see below)

To Sign Up for Training:

- Visit the Esperanza Website to find training date – follow the same instructions as signing up for a game.

Requirements

- All Workers must complete 2006 training before you are eligible to work.
- Workers must be over 18 for training. Those under 18 can work at events but under limited situations.
- Members may have sponsors (parents, alumni, booster members, other members, etc.) complete their required concession obligation. Sponsors must designate you as the recipient or their work when they sign up for the game on our concession sign up. Concession credits are non-negotiable and may not be transferred.
